

SCHOOL GRANT APPLICATION

Submission deadline for the grant applications is on February 28th

The Ridge Meadows Education Foundation, together with Senior District Staff, will evaluate applications and award grants. Currently individual grants typically range from $200 – $2,000, depending on the number of applicants and funds available. Consideration is given to projects which:

- ✓Promote healthy living through sports, fitness, and education programs.
- ✓Enhance fine arts and cultural programs.
- ✓Promote specialty programs that benefit students within School District #42.

Grant requests will NOT be considered for the following:

- X Administration or wage costs
- X Receptions or parties
- X Travel
- X Clothing
- X Advertising
- X Computer hardware
- X Tournament fees
- X Books
- X Other items deemed inappropriate by the selection review committee
- X Applications for the sole benefit of one student or family.

Please note, funds are only payable to the School District who will allocate it to the school for the project.

Please fill out the attached grant application as thoroughly as possible in the space provided.

(Attach any additional supporting information).

Please note: All items funded by the Ridge Meadows Education Foundation must remain property of School District #42 unless exempted by decision of the foundation.
